RECREATIONS

THE UNWRITTEN LETTER.

The theme here treated as the Art's feature for Wednesday and Thursday is a good one and its portrayal all that can be said from an artistic standpoint. The fact that the "Unwritten Letter" is a "Gaumont" film says all that can be said from a commercial viewpoint. It is a clean, pretty, and pathetic drama, showing forebodingly what mental and physical pain and danger one is will to endure to insure comfort and happiness to their loved ones. Again, this film is unusually clear and distinct, even for a Gaumont. Hardly does a scene ever show a prettier, more clearly cut scene, than that in the garden's adjoining the house, between dear old grandma and her daughter. The fact that the old lady cannot see makes the situation the more touching. Invest a dime at the Art either Wednesday or Thursday and you will be more than repaid.

ARMSTRONG AT THE PARK.

Tom Armstrong, the best dancer ever seen here, will be at the Park Theater until the sailing of the Marama on Saturday. He will confine his act to some good songs not sung here before and will dance as only Tom can. The two Vernes will continue to amuse the patrons of the Park with some new stunts. The feature film will be of the snake-skin industry of Java, showing one of the many odd ways of making a living in this great world of ours. This promises to be the best entertainment ever given for the price and remember that the show goes on rain or not; the new canopy over the reserved seats affording ample protection against the rain.

AALA PARK CONCERT.

The Hawaiian band will play at Ala Park this evening at 7:30 o'clock, with the following program:

PART I.

March—Hawaiian songs... Brown

Overture—Comedy... Bela

Intermezzo—Freedom and Liberty... Selection—The Messenger Boy... Monckton

PART II.

Vocal—Hawaiian songs... ar. by Berger

Selection—Madame Angot... Lecocq

Intermezzo—In Cupid's Arms... Brown

Finale—Brotherhood... Brown

The Star Spangled Banner.

THE WAVERLEY CLUB.

Popularity seems to be anchored at the Waverley for the dances continue to be enjoyed by hundreds of people nightly. The music is the thing and the place is never without a good orchestra, no matter what the demands upon Leader Nainoa are.

MORTGAGE IS FINALLY BURIED

Four hundred Odd Fellows were present last night to witness the burning of the $27,000 mortgage which has finally been wiped out. The committee responsible for the evening's entertainment incident to the destroying of the mortgage were M. T. Simonton, E. A. Jacobson and C. Biddinger.

The opening exercises were held on the roof garden, dinner being served on the second floor
